Everglades Holiday Park is an animal park in the USA. It's in Florida. It has birds, fish and ... alligators! Many tourists visit the park every year. They come to look at the alligators. Most people think alligators are interesting, but they don't really like them, and they don't go too close to them!

Gabby Scampone is different. She lives in Florida, and she works at the park. She loves her job – and she also loves alligators. In her work, she teaches visitors about alligators. She tells visitors that alligators are not always dangerous animals. Usually, alligators don't attack people, but they don't like it when people swim in the water near them. Also, if people give food to alligators, sometimes the alligators get too close, and that can be dangerous.

Gabby doesn't always work at the park. She also has a second job: she catches wild alligators. If a wild alligator goes near a person's house, Gabby and some other people catch it. They take the alligators back to the park. Her parents and friends think she's crazy, but she really enjoys the job. Gabby thinks many people don't understand alligators very well, but that alligators are smart and amazing animals. And so far she still has all of her fingers!

Exam stress!

Hi guys! I have a big exam on Friday. It's really hard to study. I read my study notes for an hour and then I watch really bad TV programmes! What about you? Do you worry about exams? What are your study habits?

MIMI23

1 Yeah, I hate tests. They're really difficult and I can't always remember everything. I need to study every day and take a lot of notes. It's not easy, but it helps to listen to R&B music – really loud! It helps me think.

SOUL BOY2

REPLY

2 I agree – exams and tests are really, really hard. In my study breaks I play with my pet cat. Some people say that animals stop stress and relax people. I think it's true, well, for me it is! Everybody needs a cat to help them study!

CAT LOVER5

REPLY

3 I think it helps to have a good study routine. I make a study timetable and that helps me to pass my exams. I always plan a lot of breaks and have a cup of tea and something small to eat. I don't want to get tired when I study! But the breaks are only short – about five or ten minutes. Then I go back to studying hard for one or two hours. Good marks come from a lot of hard work!

Why is English important for you?

I work as a traffic police officer in Mexico City. I love my job except for the tourists! Every day they speak to me and ask me for information. I can't understand them and it is difficult for me to answer. English is important for me because it helps me do my job well.

What do you want to improve in your English?

I think my speaking in English is OK for my level. I also find reading and writing quite easy. But listening and understanding is still very hard for me. I really want to stay an extra month at your school and improve my listening.

A Regular Office Job – Or Not?

Nora is 24 and she works in the marketing department of a large media company in Oslo. She works hard, but her company wants her to take breaks during the day, so she goes to lessons and sometimes plays with animals.

Nora gets up every weekday at 6:15 am. She eats breakfast and then she leaves for work at 7:00 am. She usually arrives at work at about 8:15 am – the journey takes more than an hour and the trains are always crowded.

From 8:30 am until 9:00 am, Nora reads her emails and talks to her colleagues. Then everyone in her department gets together for a short meeting. The manager tells everyone any important information, and workers can ask questions. Nora thinks it's a nice way to start the day – with everyone together.

At about 10:15 or 10:30, Nora usually takes a break. She often goes to an English lesson, but she sometimes goes to a knitting lesson. The company pays for these lessons. At 12:30, she has lunch with her colleagues. Most people at the company bring lunch – called a 'matpakk'. It is usually a sandwich with fish or cheese.

In the afternoon, Nora always takes another break at about 3:00 pm. She goes to the pet floor of her office building. The company has cats, dogs and rabbits that workers can play with on their breaks. Nora feeds the rabbits, and she often takes one of the dogs for a walk. The pet floor is Nora's favourite part of the office.

Nora never leaves the office before 5:30 pm. She often has dinner with her colleagues at the company restaurant. The meal doesn't cost a lot of money. She goes home at 7:30 pm.

TechBlog

This month on TechBlog

These days, we all use the Internet – for everything. It's on our computers, our smartphones ... it's everywhere. But imagine you haven't got the Internet. So you can't send emails, you can't post photos and you can't go online to get information.

How long could you live like that? A day? A week maybe, if you're on holiday? A month?

Here at TechBlog we asked the Walker family in Birmingham, England, to live without the Internet for a whole month. Read our interview with Alfie Walker, 17, about what it's like to go offline.

HOME REVIEWS FORUMS DOWNLOADS LOGIN SEARCH

THE INTERVIEW

Alfie, is your life different without the Internet?

Yes, it's really different! We usually get our TV through the Internet, so now I don't watch TV. And I usually go online to find information. But now we haven't got the Internet, so I go to the library and do my homework there.

What about your parents?

It's not easy for them either! My mum usually does her shopping online, but now she goes to the supermarket every weekend. My dad likes to read the news online, but now he hasn't got the Internet, so he usually buys a newspaper. The good thing is, he doesn't do any work at home now, so he's got more free time and he plays chess with me.

What about friends?

That is a big problem. If I'm not on social media, I have no idea what my friends are doing. But I think life is good without the Internet. I can't chat online now, so now I go out and see my friends and we do things together. But one month without the Internet is enough. I can't wait to get back online again!

Who is Albert Adrià?

A famous chef and film director, Albert Adrià has written several cookbooks and owns a group of restaurants in Barcelona called eBarri – including the very popular Tickets restaurant.

What's he famous for?

Albert makes creative dishes, such as spicy tuna with cherries and an orange salad with olive juice. You can try making his mussels with tomato sauce – the recipe is in his cookbook Tapas – Tickets Cuisine!

Re: visit

To: Josh1994@supermail.com

Hi Josh,

Thanks for the invitation to Tickets. I know about that guy Albert Adrià from TV. His food is interesting and it's certainly pretty unusual. But really I'm happy to go to a normal restaurant and have something simple like fried chicken with boiled potatoes or roasted vegetables, like your mum makes at home. Or I'm also fine with a tin of soup at your flat. It's a nice idea to go to the restaurant, but it will be expensive for you. You don't need to do anything special for me.

In this blog, I want to tell you about the help I get from my family and friends, and the things I try out. So if you want to be a better cook, but not a chef, then maybe I can help you!

JAKE COOKS!

My food – shared!

Added at 12:47 today

Do you like the idea of cooking dinner for friends? Here are my ideas for planning a dinner for friends – I hope you find them useful ...

First, think about how many people you want to invite. Don't invite too many – I think four people is a good number.

Next, call or text to invite your friends and agree on a night that's good for everyone.

After that, decide on your menu. Only choose food that you know how to prepare. Don't choose new and difficult dishes – it's just too hard. Your friends know that you are not a chef and your house is not a restaurant!

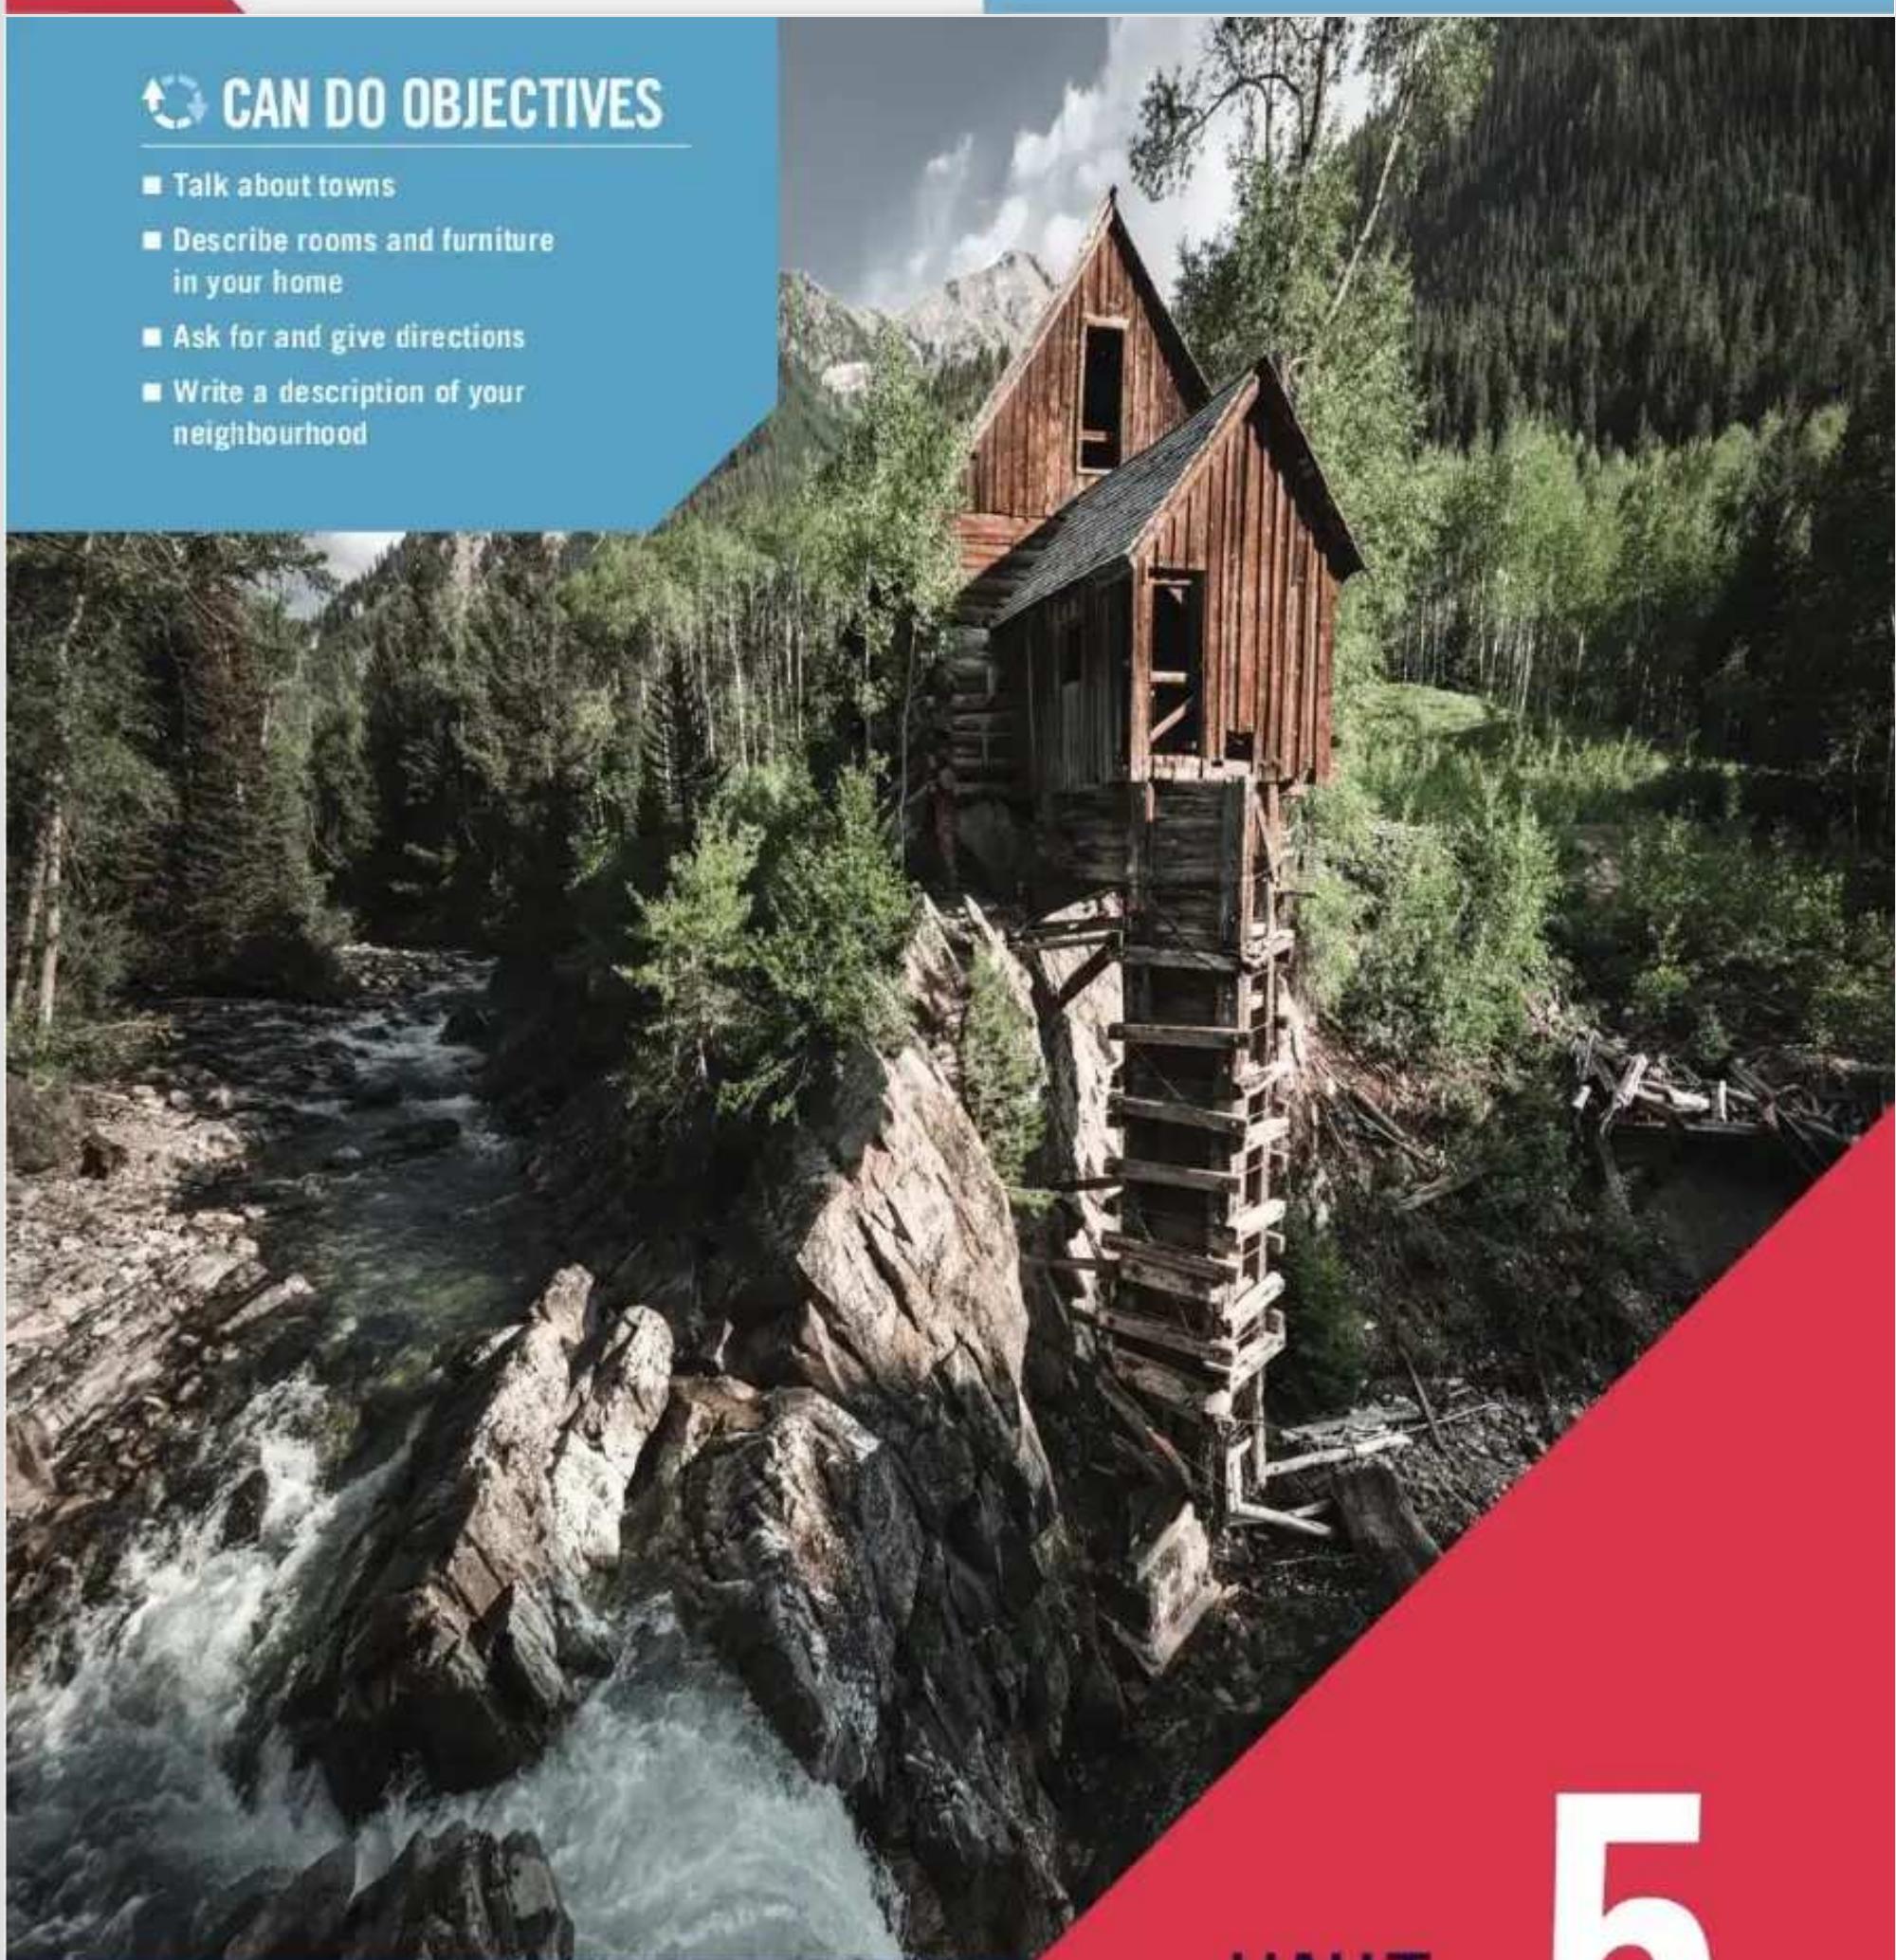

Finally, on the day of the dinner, you need a lot of time to prepare everything – the food and the table. (The weekend is good because you have all day to prepare.) If everything is ready before your guests arrive, you can enjoy the dinner much more.

Cooking for friends can be easy and fun. I hope it is for you!

V Places in a city

1 READING

a Look at the pictures of Whittier, Alaska. How do you think the town is unusual?

b Read the article and check your answer.

UNUSUAL TOWNS

Whittier, Alaska

Do you want to go to the supermarket? In most towns you walk down a street, or maybe you go by bus. Do you need to go to work? In most places, you probably take a bus or go by car. But in Whittier, you never go outside when you do these things. That's because almost the whole town is in one huge building with fourteen floors. In this one building, there are shops, there's a church, there's a police station and there's even a hospital. There are also many flats for the people who live there, and there are offices where people work, all under one roof. Only 220 people live in Whittier, so there isn't a college or university in the town, but there's one school for all the children. And of course everything is inside, so there aren't any parks or squares, and there aren't any street cafés like in other towns.

So why is it like that? Well, Whittier is on the coast of Alaska, and the weather is terrible most of the year. In summer it often rains, and there's a lot of snow in winter (about seven metres), and also very strong winds. So people in Whittier are happy to stay inside most of the time.

It isn't easy to get to and from Whittier because there isn't a normal road. The only way to get there on land is through a long tunnel. It's 3 km long, and it's very narrow, so cars can only go through it once every hour. And the tunnel closes at 10:30 pm. After that, you have to stay the night in Whittier and leave in the morning.

Do people like living there? Yes, they do! As one man from Whittier says: 'It's safe here, it's quiet, and people are friendly. And there are beautiful mountains and forests all around. I love it here!'

c Can you do these things in Whittier?

- 1 go to work by bus
- 2 sit outside in a café
- 3 go shopping
- 4 go for a walk in July
- 5 go for a walk in January
- 6 drive into Whittier at 3:00 in the morning

HIS FAMILY SECRET

His name is famous around the world and every day millions of people use the products he made – our phones, computers, laptops, tablets and smartwatches. We all think we know his story from magazines, newspapers and the Internet, but how much do we really know about him?

Steve Jobs was born in San Francisco in 1955. His birth parents were university students. They decided not to keep their son and Steve was adopted by Clara and Paul Jobs.

The Jobs family lived in Mountain View, California. This area is now known as Silicon Valley, where there are a lot of big technology companies. Steve's hobby as a child was electronics. He made simple computers with his father at the family home. He met Steve Wozniak when he was at school. They both loved electronics and became good friends. In 1976, they started Apple Computers in Steve's parents' garage. They worked hard, and four years later the company was worth $1.2 billion.

Two years after that, Steve found out about his sister for the first time. After he was adopted, his birth parents had another child, Mona, who became a famous writer. This amazing brother and sister were close friends until he died in 2011. People will continue to remember Steve when they see or use an Apple product.

Every holiday is a story ... tell us about yours!

Sometimes it's good to do something different ...

It was our last day in Pattaya and my friends and I wanted to go to a beach on Koh Larn island. The receptionist at the hotel gave us a ferry timetable. We went to the pier, and there was another tourist – Lars, a guy from Denmark. He wanted to go to Koh Larn, too. We waited and we waited, but the ferry didn't arrive. So Lars checked an app and found out that you can catch a speedboat and get there in 15 minutes. We left the pier with Lars and got on a speedboat. It was a really exciting journey and so fast – much better than the ferry! We all had so much fun together that day. And, by the way, Lars is now my husband. –Jessica

How to miss the perfect moment ...

I don't really like selfie sticks, but they're useful on holiday. I was in Alaska on holiday with three friends from university. They all had selfie sticks and I decided to buy one, too. But I didn't want to spend a lot of money, so I got a cheap one. The four of us went on a kayak trip to see Valdez Glacier. There we were – on the water, each person in their kayak – it was a great day. I wanted a memory of this perfect moment, so I put my phone on the selfie stick and ... Well, I didn't buy a very good selfie stick and my phone fell off. Into the water! I felt so stupid. My friends tried not to laugh, but it was funny and in the end I laughed too. –Ethan

Make-up danger ...

Before we went on our holiday to Rome, some friends told us that there's a lot of traffic. They said a good way to get around the city is by scooter. So when my husband and I went to Rome, we didn't use public transport – we rented two Vespas, the famous Italian scooter. They were great to ride – we got around the city really easily. On the second evening, we decided to go to a nice restaurant for dinner. I put on some nice clothes and make-up – I chose a very red lipstick. But I didn't know about the insects. You see, when you wear lipstick on a scooter, flies and mosquitoes stick to your lips. When we got to the restaurant, my lips were covered with them. My husband thought it was very funny. I didn't wear make-up on the scooter again – just very cool sunglasses. –Kayla

Fast City Transport ...
Around The World

London The London Underground – the 'Tube' – was the first underground (or metro) system in the world. It opened in 1863. It now has 270 stations, and you can go nearly everywhere in London. It's not cheap, and the trains are often full, but it's unusual because it's very deep under the ground (50 metres in some places). One station, Hampstead, has 320 steps!

Cape Town If you visit Cape Town, there isn't a metro, but you can go on an express bus system called MyCiTi. It opened in 2010, and there are now 36 routes through the city. The buses travel above ground along main roads. They have special lanes and bus stops, so the city traffic isn't a problem. The buses are very fast, and they're a great way to see the city. They're also very easy to use. You just put money onto a travel card and tap in when you get on the bus!

Moscow If you visit Moscow, go on the Moscow Metro. It opened in 1935, and the stations are very beautiful, with statues and lamps. Eight million people use it every day, so it can get very crowded. There are police at the stations so it's very safe, even at night. It's also very cheap – you can get across the city for 30 rubles. People on the trains are very polite. They always give their seat to an old person or to anyone with a baby.

From the locals

Sergei 'A good way to get around'

Most of my friends drive in the city, but I always take the metro. The trains are good and it's a fast and comfortable way to get around. And I like the stations – they look like palaces!

Antonia 'So easy!'

I use it to go to work every day and I love it. The buses come every few minutes, so I don't wait at all. They're clean and they're comfortable, too. And it's a safe way to travel when the roads are busy – I can leave my car at home!

Joanna 'Not much fun'

I don't really enjoy it. I have to walk up and down over 300 steps because the stations are so deep. In the mornings, the trains are often full and it's uncomfortable.

Subject: Homestay

Dear Mr and Mrs Conway,

My name is Ahmed Al Mansouri and I come from Dubai in the United Arab Emirates. Thank you for offering to be my homestay family when I'm in Sydney.

I am 23 years old and study biology at university. I live with my family in Dubai. My father is a businessman and my mother is a doctor. I've got one brother and one sister. They're university students too.

In my free time, I like playing football (I think you say 'soccer' in Australia!) and meeting my friends. I like watching different kinds of sports with them.

While I'm in Sydney, I really want to study hard and improve my English because I want to become a marine biologist after I finish university. I'd really like to work in a country like Australia.

I'm looking forward to meeting you when I arrive.

Best wishes,
Ahmed

Jonnie Peacock CHAMPION RUNNER

When Jonnie Peacock was five, he was like most boys from his home town of Cambridge, England – he loved to play sports. Then suddenly his life changed when he became very sick with meningitis. Jonnie's parents took him to hospital and he nearly died. The doctors saved his life, but they couldn't save his right leg. He couldn't run around with the other children any more, and he couldn't play football, his favourite sport. In fact, he couldn't do any sports at all.

Then the doctors gave him a new, artificial leg. He could walk again, but he wanted to do more than that, so he started dancing and doing other sports. His doctors, his friends and his parents were all surprised that he could do so much. Only 18 months after he lost his leg, he could run, swim and play football again, but running was his best sport.

In 2010, Jonnie started to practise a lot. He wanted to go to the London 2012 Paralympics, the Olympic Games for disabled athletes. Some of the athletes in the Paralympics can't walk, and some can't see at all or can't see very well. But in their sports, they can do things that most people can't. Jonnie Peacock won a gold medal at the London 2012 Paralympic Games when he was only 19 years old. He ran the 100 metres in a time of 10.90 seconds! He won another gold medal at the 2016 Paralympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, with an even faster time of 10.81 seconds! He still enjoys dancing as well. In 2017, Jonnie was the first amputee paralympian to compete on the TV show Strictly Come Dancing.

HIIT: GET FIT IN FIVE! THE ROUTINE

warm up → _____ seconds of intense exercise → rest

HOW LONG? GOOD FOR:

Time: _____ a day Getting fit, preventing diabetes and _____ disease

ONLY 5 MINUTES OF EXERCISE A DAY... AND YOU CAN GET FIT!

HOW EASY IS IT TO GET FIT? Do you think it's difficult to do enough exercise? Is having enough time to exercise a problem? Think you know the answers to these questions? Well, think again because a new type of exercise is here and it could change your life.

WHAT IS IT? This new, popular form of exercise is called High Intensity Interval Training (HIIT) and it means you don't have to spend hours and hours in the gym. A few minutes a day doing intense exercise is all you need. You can choose to do floor exercises, run or cycle.

WHAT DO YOU HAVE TO DO? Let's take the example of running – you begin with a short warm-up, then you have to run as fast as you can for 20 to 30 seconds and then rest. You repeat the routine twice and that's all you have to do!

SO HOW DOES HIIT WORK? No one is sure of the answer to this question. However, some sports scientists in Canada, Norway and the UK think that when we exercise intensely, we use more muscles than we do with normal exercise. This helps us get fit, which could also help prevent problems like diabetes and heart disease.

Walking my way to love by Dylan Jones

Three years ago, I started working for this company. I didn't know anyone in the area, so I decided to do some exercise to meet new people. However, I was quite unfit. I tried doing different kinds of sports, but I did them all badly. I found an answer to all my problems by going for a walk.

A colleague of mine invited me to go on a hike in the mountains. I didn't say yes immediately because it didn't sound very interesting. However, I decided it could be good exercise for me, so I went along. This was the beginning of my love of hiking.

At first, I had to walk slowly because I wasn't very fit. However, I improved quickly and now I can walk pretty fast for hours. I began to feel so much better. While I was on a hike with a group of people one weekend, I met Marina. She's now my wife. We go hiking once or twice a month and we love it.

You don't have to do anything special to start hiking. You only have to know how to walk and most people can do that. However, you have to buy special boots so you don't hurt your feet. Hiking is a great way to enjoy our beautiful country. And you never know – perhaps you can find true love too!

Me on a hike!

Hi everyone! I'm really enjoying life here in Shanghai. My new job is quite busy, but my colleagues are very friendly and they all speak English to me. In my free time, I sometimes study Mandarin and relax. I often go shopping because this is a popular 'hobby' here. I usually meet friends at a shopping centre. At the moment, it's Chinese New Year here. My friends told me there's a great street party this evening – I really want to go.

DIANA Message posted: 12:23 Send Diana a message

Hello to all my friends. I love it here in Venice! It's so beautiful – even in the winter. I have to spend a lot of time on my art history classes, but at the weekends I get some free time. I usually walk around and look at the old buildings, or when it's cold, I go to museums. There are so many interesting little shops here too – it's great. It's very different from going to a shopping centre. This week it's Carnevale and the whole city is like one big party. Yesterday my friends invited me to a big party in a piazza (that's Italian for a town square). It's tonight and I have to wear a long dress and mask. I need to go shopping!

Everyone's dancing in the streets and having a great time. We're all wearing amazing clothes – I'm even wearing a dress!

How do you like listening to music? Over-ear headphones or earbuds? Tell us which you prefer, and don't forget to vote!

Alyssa Yesterday

Earbuds are better than headphones. They are nice and small and they fit in my pocket. Headphones are too big!

Pedro Yesterday

Well, yeah, headphones are bigger than earbuds, but headphones aren't that big. Mine fold up and go in my bag, no problem!

Kentaro Yesterday

Most headphones are more expensive than earbuds, but I don't mind paying more for good sound.

Emily Yesterday

I do mind! I lose things all the time. If you're like me, it's better to buy something that's cheaper!

Monica Yesterday

Because they're smaller and lighter, you can use earbuds anywhere. I go to the gym and I always take my earbuds with me. Headphones aren't very comfortable if you're working out!

Nils Yesterday

Some people say you can only use headphones at home, but I take mine everywhere – around town, when I'm travelling. They're more comfortable than earbuds, and my headphones come with a case – that makes them easy to carry.

Kentaro 6 minutes ago

Headphones – absolutely. There's no question!

Monica 5 minutes ago

Well, I find the sound is clearer on headphones because they cover your ears. But if you buy a really good pair of earbuds – well, the sound is quite good.

Nils 2 minutes ago

I've got really small ears, so earbuds always fall out! If you want comfort and great sound quality, then headphones are definitely better.

Alyssa 1 minute ago

They're smaller, cheaper, easier to use and the sound quality is fine. I vote for earbuds – a winner for me in all categories.

Things I hate!

Genji

I hate it when people look at their phone when they're talking to you. If you're talking to somebody, they should look at you, not at their phone. It's the worst thing you can do if you're with someone. I have a friend who does that.

Meepe

Yes, I agree. I've also got a friend like that. You're talking to him and he starts scrolling on his phone! It's so annoying.

MadMax

Yes, you're right, it's really rude. Some people post photos on social media in the middle of a conversation as well. I hate that.

AdamB

Yes, my sister does that too. We're having dinner and she starts sending texts to all her friends. I text my friends a lot too, but I try to put my phone down during dinner.

Lars2

Sometimes that's annoying, but I can also understand why people do it. Sometimes I want to send an important text before I forget about it. Everyone has a smartphone these days. We all use our phones for everything!

Rose Byrne, Mia Wasikowska and Margot Robbie are three famous actors who work in Hollywood, and they have many things in common.

All three come from Australia and before they went to Hollywood, their first acting jobs were in Australian TV dramas and soap operas. They've acted in some very popular films. Rose was in Bridesmaids and the X-Men and Peter Rabbit film series. Mia was in Jane Eyre and Alice Through the Looking Glass. Margot was in The Legend of Tarzan, I, Tonya and Mary Queen of Scots. All three women have won awards in the USA and Australia for their acting.

They have also done some interesting and unusual things outside the film industry. Rose has worked for UNICEF in Australia. She's also a model and has been in TV advertisements for the make-up company Max Factor. Margot was in the film The Legend of Tarzan. Before she started making that film, she learned to swing on a circus trapeze. She also learned to ice-skate in order to play Tonya Harding in the film I, Tonya. Mia studied dance at school and has directed some short films. Now she really loves taking photos and won a national prize in Australia for one of her photos.

Rose, Mia and Margot are not just three amazing actors, they are three amazing people.

GO TO A CLASSICAL CONCERT

If you like classical music, go to the National Concert Hall. It's in a beautiful modern building right by the River Danube, which has a theatre and a museum as well as a concert hall. Top orchestras from all over the world play here and you can also see world-class operas and jazz concerts.

GO TO THE SZIGET FESTIVAL

Every August, Budapest has one of the best rock and pop music festivals in Europe. It's on an island in the river, close to the city centre! You can hear all kinds of pop and rock music here, as well as jazz and world music. It could be a chance to see your favourite rock star close up!

MUSIC IN THE RUINS

In an old part of the city, you can find ruined buildings which are now great places to hear live music. Try Szimpla Kert, which has a nice garden to sit in. They serve food and they often have live music so you can hear local bands and singers.

MUSIC ON THE RIVER

Another great venue in Budapest is the A38 Ship. It's an old ship where they have concerts and dance music. If it gets too hot inside, you can go out on the deck and look at the river!

OR GO FOR SOMETHING MORE TRADITIONAL ...

It's easy to find restaurants in Budapest where you can listen to Hungarian folk music while you eat. Try the small streets in Óbuda, the old part of Budapest. - 7 The film is about a boy who grows up in a small town in the desert.

'I thought it was an interesting and very beautiful film.
So try to see it if you can.'

Ashley

I saw Roma at the cinema last year and then I watched it again on Netflix. ²So I've watched it twice now, and it was even better the second time. ³It's by the Mexican director Alfonso Cuarón, and it's based on his own childhood growing up in Mexico City. ⁴All the actors are excellent, but I liked Yalitza Aparicio the best. She was completely unknown when Cuarón gave her the part, but she's great. ⁵She plays the role of a maid who works for a middle-class family, and the film is the story of her relationship with the parents and the children of the family. ⁶I thought it was an interesting and very beautiful film. So try to see it if you can.

d Look at the reviews again. How are sentences 1–3 different from the ones in the reviews?

- 1 I watched Roma on Netflix a few weeks ago. A friend recommended Roma, and we usually like the same films, so I decided to watch Roma.
- 2 I liked Yalitza Aparicio the best. Yalitza Aparicio was completely unknown when Cuarón gave Yalitza Aparicio the part, but Yalitza Aparicio is great.
- 3 So I didn't think the film was a great film, but maybe it's OK to watch the film if you have nothing better to do.

e Answer the questions with a partner.

- 1 How many times did the three people write the name of the film in their reviews?
- 2 What words did they use in place of the name of the film?

'OK to watch it if you have nothing to do one evening.'

Oscar

¹I watched Roma on Netflix a few weeks ago. ²A friend recommended it, and we usually like the same films, so I decided to watch it, but I was disappointed. ³Alfonso Cuarón, who also made the film Gravity, wrote and directed it. ⁴The acting was good (Marina de Tavira is great in the role of the mother), but I found the story a bit boring. ⁵The film is about a family and their maid. All the characters in the film just do ordinary things and nothing exciting happens. ⁶So I didn't think it was a great film, but maybe it's OK to watch it if you have nothing better to do.

4 WRITING AND SPEAKING

a Plan a review of a film you've seen. Write notes using the questions in 3a and the comments in 3c to help you.

Anna

'A very interesting film, but it was also very sad.'

¹I watched Roma at a friend's house last week. ²I thought it was a very interesting film, but it was also very sad and the ending made me cry. ³The film is by the Mexican director Alfonso Cuarón, and it's in black and white. ⁴The film is about a family in Mexico City and their life with their maid, who comes from a village. ⁵The acting is very good, especially the actors who play the maid and the mother. ⁶I can recommend this film, but only watch it if you enjoy sad films!

Re: Porto

Hi, Fred,

¹Thanks for your email. ²I'm really happy to help you plan your holiday in Porto. ³I've been here for two years now, and I just love it. ⁴I'm sure you're going to have a great time here. ⁵You asked me about the three top tourist things to do in Porto, so here are some ideas. ⁶First, you should visit my favourite part of the city: Aliados & Bolhão. ⁷It's a mix of cool shops, amazing buildings and cafés. You can visit the Lello bookshop – it's really popular with Harry Potter fans like you! ⁸And secondly, you should explore the River Douro – there are beautiful walks on both sides. ⁹Finally, the third place you should go to is the tiny village of Afurada – it's just down the river. ¹⁰Catch a ferry and stay for an afternoon. ¹¹It's really lovely, with wonderful fish restaurants, and there's a lot of interesting history and culture you can learn about. ¹²But you can also spend time just walking around the centre of Porto. ¹³You said you were going to come at the end of next month. ¹⁴It's autumn then and it's not too hot or too cold, so it's really nice doing things outdoors. ¹⁵It's a city with so much to see and do – I'm sure you're going to love it! ¹⁶I hope these ideas help you. ¹⁷Let's meet and get a cup of coffee when you come.

Best wishes,
Fabiana

5B Possessive pronouns and possessive 's

Possessive pronouns

05.09

Subject	Possessive adjective	Possessive pronoun
I	my Those are my shoes.	mine Those are mine.
you	your These are your pens.	yours These are yours.
he	his This is his shirt.	his This is his.

we	our They're our cats.	ours They're ours.
they	their They aren't their cats.	theirs They aren't theirs.

05.10

We use possessive adjectives (e.g. my, your) before nouns:
Is this your hat?

We use possessive pronouns (e.g. mine, yours) in the place of a possessive adjective and a noun:
Is this yours?

We can ask about possession with the word whose:

Whose hat is this? / Whose is this hat?

05.11

We add an apostrophe (' + s) to a singular noun or a name to show possession:

My sister has a car. It's my sister's car.

If a plural noun already ends in -s, we just add an apostrophe after the -s:

My grandparents have a house. It's my grandparents' house.

Other uses of 's

- We also use 's as a contraction of is or has got:
He's (= He is) very lucky. He's got (= He has got) four brothers.

Tip

- Be careful with it's (= it is / it has) and its (= possessive adjective).
- Be careful with who's (= who is / who has) and whose.

c Now go back to p. 102.

English is not the most beautiful language in the world. Some people say it's not the easiest. But when you're lost, it's probably the most useful.

11A Present perfect

We use the present perfect to talk about past actions in a time period which starts in the past and continues now, for example: today, this week, this year, your lifetime.

I've seen that film four times (in my life).

I haven't had any coffee today.

Have you been to the gym this week?

We make the present perfect from the verb have + the past participle of the main verb.

For regular verbs, the past participle is the same as the past form:

I walked to work yesterday.

I've walked to work three times this week.

For irregular verbs, the past participle is usually different. You have to learn the different forms. (See page 129 for a list of irregular verbs.)

I drove to work yesterday.

I've driven to work three times this week.

▶ 11.06

I / you / we / they	I've	seen the film 400 times.
he / she / it	He's	seen the film 400 times.
I / you / we / they	They haven't	seen the film.
he / she / it	She hasn't	seen the film.

We often use the present perfect to talk about experiences:
I've seen the film once. (in my lifetime)

She's met him three times. (in her lifetime)

When we ask a question about experiences, we often use the word ever.

Have you ever read this book? = Have you read this book in your lifetime?

We use never with the present perfect to say there is no experience.

I've never read her book. = I haven't read her book in my lifetime.

	Yes/No questions	Short answers
I / you / we / they	Have you seen the film?	Yes, No, I have. I haven't.
he / she / it	Has he seen the film?	Yes, No, he has. he hasn't.

Tip

The past participle of go is gone. But we often use the past participle of be (been) instead of gone.

I've been to France. (= I'm not there now.)

Claire's gone to Scotland. (= she's still there now.)

11B Present perfect or past simple

We use the present perfect to talk about the past experiences in our life, but we don't say when exactly.
I've been to Buenos Aires. (We don't know when.)

We use the past simple to say when something happened (e.g. last year, yesterday, in 2012).

I went to the theatre last week. (NOT I've been to the theatre last week.)

We often start a conversation by asking about or describing an event using the present perfect, and then change to the past simple to ask about or describe the details of the event.
